Vibrant, Resilient, Still Here: Contemporary Native Americans in Illinois

Thur., Oct 20 @ 6:30 pm

In this presentation, Pamala Silas will share some of the lesser known history of Native Americans in this region leading up to the present. She will provide a look at the contemporary issues impacting the Native American community and how to become a good ally. The presentation will wrap up with an interactive conversation about how the public learns about and sees Native Americans, along with some misconceptions. Pamala Silas is Associate Director for the Center for Native American and Indigenous Research at Northwestern University. She is a member of Menominee Indian Tribe and an Oneida descendant. She has a BS in Economics from DePaul University and a Certification in Association Management (CAE). This event is being produced in partnership with the Illinois Humanities Road Scholars Speakers Bureau.

Ghosts of Illinois

Thur., Oct 27 @ 6:30 pm

Illinois is home to some of the most famous ghosts in the Midwest. Sylvia Shults will be our guide as we explore the spirits and ghostly tales of our state, including haunted places in central Illinois, the paranormal landscapes of Chicago, and the deserted hallways of the Peoria State Hospital.

Book Clubs

Books listed here are available for checkout at the library. Join discussions at the library or on Zoom at bit.ly/3fQ9Ku4, unless otherwise noted.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

16 PEACE, JUSTICE
AND STRONG
INSTITUTIONS

The United Nations has adopted the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development; it “seeks peace and prosperity for people and the planet, now and in the future.”

Goal 16: Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels.

How are libraries helping?

- Provide access to information for all individuals and institutions
- Utilize research skills to help anyone in need of finding information
- Offer space for organizations of all kinds to meet
